Tetrick Funeral & Cremation Services and Washington County Memory Gardens
HOST GRIEF SEMINARS

Tetrick Funeral & Cremation Services and Washington County Memory Gardens in Johnson City, Tennessee, will be co-sponsors of two special workshops for community members and professionals. Both workshops will be held at The Millennium Centre; 2001 Millennium Place; Johnson City, TN 37604.

On Tuesday, June 12, 2012, from 6:30 – 9:00 p.m., the topic will be “Exploring Critical Questions When Someone Dies” and on Wednesday, June 13, 2012, from 8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m., the topic will be “Exploring the Special Features of Sudden Death, Trauma Loss, and Suicide Grief.” The Tuesday session will award two CEU’s for Tennessee licensed funeral directors and embalmers and the Wednesday session will award five CEU’s. Sign-in will be handled by a representative from Tetrick Funeral & Cremation Services. Certificates of Attendance will be given at the end of each session with attendance reporting done to the Tennessee Funeral Board.

The workshop presenter will be Dr. Alan Wolfelt, a psychologist and grief counselor of international reputation. Recipient of the Association for Death Education and Counseling’s Death Educator Award, Dr. Wolfelt is the Director of the Center for Loss and Life Transition in Colorado, and has authored a number of publications in the area of death and grief.
